INTERESTING FACTS ABOUT JANE AUSTEN

In her lifetime, Jane completed six novels, including Northanger Abbey, Sense and Sensibility, Pride and Prejudice, Mansfield Park, Emma, and Persuasion. Only four of them were published before her death.

In 1802, Jane received her only proposal of marriage from Harris Bigg-Wither, an "unattractive" Oxford educated young man and childhood friend, who was heir to a large family estate. Jane accepted the proposal for practical reasons. The very next day, however, Jane withdrew her acceptance, feeling it to be a mistake.

QUOTES BY JANE AUSTEN

"I do not want people to be agreeable, as it saves me the trouble of liking them. "

"Friendship is certainly the finest balm for the pangs of disappointed love."

"Perhaps it is our imperfections that make us so perfect for one another!"
-Emma

"It isn't what we say or think that defines us, but what we do".
-Sense and Sensibility

FOR FURTHER DISCUSSION

1. The Bennet girls felt that they needed to get married in order to be happy. What are some of your goals and accomplishments you want to achieve? Which of those make you the happiest to pursue?

2. Jane Austin's original title for this story was First Impressions. How did Elizabeth's first impression of Mr. Darcy cause her to behave towards him? How did her opinion of him change? Have you ever mis-judged someone based on a first impression?
